We are seeking an enthusiastic and dedicated individual to join our team as our Athletic Instructor. The ideal candidate is an organized, capable self-starter willing to build a sports and fitness program which aligns with our mission and helps students develop healthy life habits. This position will work directly with our Program Manager to develop a gym curriculum that engages and excites our campers.

Essential Responsibilities

- Provide gym class for campers in 5 - 14 years old.
- Lead sports teams and activities
- Bring lesson plans to life for campers through your participation, support and guidance
- Extensive knowledge of physical fitness, sports, and exercise
- Prior work with Summer Camps is a plus but not required

Requirements

- Minimum 2 years experience with school aged students required.
- Experience with curriculum development and group instruction
- Passionate and dedicated to engaging students in an interactive program focused on building cooperative skills
